INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLY FOR LIMITED RECIPROCITY

The Director of the Arizona Registrar of Contractors, has announced that a reciprocity agreement has been reached between the Arizona Registrar of Contractors and the Utah State License Board. Arizona will now waive TRADE EXAMINATIONS only for all licensed Utah contractors in all categories and classifications equivalent to those of Arizona. All applicants shall be required to pass the Arizona Business Management examination.

In order to be considered for a trade test waiver the following requirements shall be met:

1. The applicant shall have been licensed and in good standing in their home state for a period of no less than five consecutive year. The five consecutive years shall be immediately prior to making application for licensing in the State of Arizona.
2. The applicant/qualifier shall have taken and passed an equivalent trade exam.
3. The applicant/qualifier shall be required to take and successfully pass the Business Management exam for the State of Arizona.
4. The applicant/qualifier shall provide with their Arizona application the completed verification form as completed by their home state. The form shall be submitted in the SEALED AND UNOPENED envelope in which the form was returned to applicant/qualifier.
5. This waiver does not apply to the Arizona Dept. of Water Resources Trade Examination required for the A-4, A-16, L-53, and C-53 license classifications.
